*Did God give all His revelation at one time?

3. Jesus Christ is _____ to the _____ as manifested by ... (1:4-14)

- a. His _____ and His _____ as His _____. (1:5). This is supported by quotes from Psalm 2:7 and 2 Samuel 7:14.
- b. His title of _____ which indicates He is first in _____ and thus _____ of all things. (1:6a) This is a reference to Psalm 89:27. This does not mean that Christ was first in birth or the first created – for Jesus Christ is eternal.
- c. He being _____ at His birth and His return (1:6). This is a quote from Deuteronomy 32:43. Since God alone is to be worshipped, this indicates that Jesus Christ is deity and superior to the angels, and thus is rightfully worshipped as such.
- d. He being _____ over the angels as they were created to _____ (1:7). This is supported by a quote from Psalm 104:4.
- e. He being declared _____ and appropriately displaying _____ (1:8-9). This is supported by a quote from Psalm 45:6-7.
- f. He being called _____ and is set forth as _____ (1:10-12). This is supported by a quote from Psalm 102:25-27.
- g. His present _____ and _____ over the angels as He is seated at the right hand of God the Father till operation footstool is accomplished (1:13-14). This is supported by a quote from Psalm 110:1.

- While Jesus Christ is sovereign God and superior in nature and position to the angels, what was He willing to become? (2:9a)
- Why was this needed and what did it accomplish? (2:9b)
- How does this apply to you?
... as a believer in Christ?

... as a sinner in need of the Savior?
